

What do counselors do?

Sometimes a counselor
talks to you all by yourself...

Other times she sees you when you are with other boys and girls.

What do counselors talk about?

- Things you want to share
- Problems you might be having at home or at school

You can talk to a counselor when you feel...

Mad...

You might talk with a
counselor when you feel...

You might talk with a
counselor when you feel...

Sometimes counselors talk with boys and girls about being lonely and making friends....

A counselor might talk about cooperation and sharing.

And following the rules...

A counselor might talk
about how we are all different but special.

How can I get to talk to a counselor?

You might write a note to the counselor.

You can ask to talk to a counselor...or your parent or teacher might ask.

Information you share with a counselor is confidential.

Unless you or someone you know is being hurt...then it must be reported

A counselor is another teacher who is interested in you.

Counselors want to make sure you learn how to get along with friends and family

Counselors want to make sure you learn how to be successful at school.

Counselors want to make sure you have a productive and awesome year.
